The Board may at its discretion at any time and from time to time nominate and authorise any person who is not a director of the Association to attend meetings of committees or sub-committees so established in a consultative or advisory capacity only. The meetings and proceedings of any committee formed by the directors shall be governed by the provisions of sections 160(10) to (12) of the Act (inclusive) and the provisions of this Constitution regulating the meetings and proceedings of directors so far as the same are applicable and are not superseded by any regulations imposed on such committee by the directors.

71. Chairperson of committee: A chairperson of any committee or sub-committee appointed pursuant to Regulation 70 who has held office for four consecutive years shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further four years but shall not thereafter be eligible for re-appointment as a chairperson of that committee for a period of one year.

72. Joint venture committees: The Board may from time to time appoint members of the Association or other persons to sit on joint venture committees established jointly by the Association and any other body with similar or allied interests.

73. Non-attendance at committee meetings: If any member of any committee or sub-committee (including the chairperson), fails to attend any meeting of such committee or sub-committee for a period of one year he shall, unless the Board otherwise determines, be deemed to have retired from such committee or sub-committee as the case may be and shall not be eligible for re-appointment to that committee or sub-committee for a period of one year.

A director or member of the committee taking part in such a conference shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum accordingly. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place:

(a) where the largest group of those participating in the conference is assembled; or

(b) if there is no such group, where the chairperson of the meeting then is; or

(c) if neither subparagraph (a) or (b) applies, in such location as the meeting itself decides.

79. Chair of Board meetings: The President shall take the chair at meetings of the Board. If the President shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or shall be unwilling or unable to act as chairman, the directors present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.

80. The Chief Executive Officer of the Association may be appointed only by the Board for such time, at such remuneration, on such terms and upon such conditions as it may think fit. The Board shall be empowered to place upon the Chief Executive Officer such additional duties and responsibilities as it may think fit with power to vary same from time to time. The Chief Executive Officer shall at all times be subject to the control and direction of the Board and shall not, without the express approval of the Board, act otherwise than within the parameters and policies approved by the Board. The Board may appoint such further officials as it shall deem necessary.
